Audi Sydney Harbour Regatta

Manly Yacht Club can hold its head up high in yachting circles around Sydney, with some outstanding results in the recent "Audi Sydney Harbour Regatta".

Jim Nixon

The event was spread out over the entire harbour. Most divisions consisted of 14 boats or more, which made for some very hectic and close racing. Day 1 was a sick shifty 8 to 10 knotter. It was very sloppy in the sound, however reports from up the harbour saw much smoother conditions.

Day 2 was much the same with 8 to 10, but not as many shifts. The afternoon Nor-east swing sure put the cat amongst the pigeons mid-race. Even though 9 Sydney based clubs volunteered to run the races, we heard no complaints about the organisation from anyone. There were of course the usual truckload of excuses, as to why certain boats did so badly.

But one boat that did the exact opposite was Nixon's "Carinya", which won her division against some hardened opposition. This gave Jim the chance to join the winners circle and an opportunity to win the regattas first prize A BRAND NEW AUDI.

Jim and one of his crew-members, fondly known as 'the difference', were hustled out to a racetrack on the outskirts of Sydney. There, they and other divisional winners competed for the AUDI. Unfortunately they missed out by a second or two, but gave it a bloody good effort anyway.

With 9 MYC Yachts competing in 6 of the 14 divisions, skippers and crews did a great job and had a fabulous time to boot. In the Classic Division, Jim Nixon's "Carinya" and Brian Wilson's "Eos" battled all comers up in the Athol Bight area. As mentioned, "Carinya" came 1st with "Eos" a close 4th.

Nigel Holman's new "Cuckoo's Nest" was out in IRC Div 2 and came 4th. He was with the big boys running between the heads in sloppy light Sou-easterly conditions.

In PHS Div 2, we had 2 yachts in the same division, with Teudt and Lewis on "Two Can" and the usual reprobates on "Pam" coming 4th and 5th respectively.

Coopers mob in "Windy Point" was in PHS Div 3. They did their battling up near Bradley's and came 13th. The crew of "Melody" came 4th in PHS Div 4 and were also up the other end of the harbour giving it their all.

Dennewald and Smyth's "Ratty" North Shore 27' came 7th in PHS Div 4 and even scored some free AUDI gear. Last but not least, Bruce Davis and his motley crew in his one design Etchell "Wild Life", came 7th place in a very competitive division.

Other club members were spotted on boats throughout the Regatta too. Greg Ebling on "Reality" (not KW Reality) to name but one, came 2nd in his division. We even spotted a redheaded Canadian on Middle Head cheering and waving her flag to all MYC competitors.

Well done everyone! Peter Mac ▶

Ratty: We almost won the Audi.....well if there hadn't been 10 boats in front of us we might have, but we had a great time anyway.

President's Report

The New Deck Committee met with representatives of the Manly 16 ft Skiff Club on 20 February to understand their objections to our proposed wharf.

Under an agreement entered into when the new entrance to MYC was built, the Skiff Club were given the right to use our facilities free of charge when they are not being used by MYC. The Skiff Club felt that the location of the office would restrict their access to our new deck area.

We have decided to delete this office and revert to the original deck design. We have re-submitted drawings to NSW Maritime (for the third time in almost 12 months) to obtain Landowners consent to the proposed extension to the deck. I hope we get a positive and quick response.

The agreement with this Skiff Club resulted from a complex negotiation that was considered equally beneficial to both parties. MYC helped with the joint development application and allowed the Skiff Club to use some land for boat storage and in return, the Skiff Club paid for our new entrance and received free use of our facilities when they are not being used. Our facilities were used by the Skiff Club for the 16 ft National Championships in January this year.

It is hoped that both Clubs can continue the close co-operation in the future.

Series go down to the wire. With only three races to go in the Club Championship and Flotta Lauro competitions for yachts, it really is anyone's race this year at MYC. There are just seven points separating the first six yachts in the Club Championship (when the second discard is taken into account), so realistically any of those boats has the chance to get its name inscribed on the MYC honour board as the champion of the club. The Flotta Lauro series for the smaller yachts is even more wide open, with just five points between the first six yachts, with a few more still within striking range if the last three races go their way. This year's fleets have been an improvement on last season's and the racing certainly more competitive but it would be great if we had more boats out on the harbour for those final three races (that means you Local Hero, Cape Fear and Ten Sixty). For the others, remember, you can always come along as a casual entry if your not entered in the points-score. .

More boats - more fun

Melody has had a busy month, she has been out in the last 4 twilights scoring a first, second, and 2 third from lasts. Crew has included myself and Al, Paul and Tony (new members). Ian Dennewald and Greg James came last Friday Twilight to check her out and try out the spinnaker and stayed on for the race.

Melody was also out and about in the last Whitworth cup race skippered by Candice whose parents who were visiting from Canada and stayed to crew for her!

Al and I took Melody out in the Sydney Harbour Regatta with Greg James and she went really well coming joint third - not bad considering that neither Al or I had done scratch starts on the helm before! One of the CYCA skippers called out well done to us afterwards and was a bit taken aback when we called back "not bad considering our boat is worth less than your mainsail"! We had a great race which we would not have had the opportunity to participate in if Melody wasn't available and were very pleased with our results and grateful to MYC.

Thanks to the following people for helping with melody:
Jim N for setting the whole thing up, Ian D for fixing the leaky dingy, Bill S - for lending us spinnaker sheets and organising raffles Greg J for guidance during the regatta, fixing stuff, applying a load of Gaffa tape and letting us use his compressor

Melody wishlist:

Dingy - needs to carry 4 people and sails (we have some money to pay for this) Spinnaker sheets, Main sail block, Clutches, Any halyard clips. If you happen to have a second hand version of any of the above and might consider donating it to Melody all donations will be gratefully received.

'The What It's Worth Summer Cup'

All characters in this article are fictitious and any resemblance to persons living or dead is purely coincidental.

The story revolves around the start of Division 2 in the 3rd race of 'Mandalay' Yacht Club's, 'What It's worth Cup'. 'Book Mark', a small but beautifully formed 'Banana 22', is competing in Division 2. Regular crew 'Jezebel' and 'Margarita' are sojourning in distant climes, but thanks to Advice Commodore 'Tweaker's' crew list I've picked up the fella who used to sail with the Argonauts, let's call him 'J' and his charming girlfriend 'Samba', who are kindly helping me out.

Starting instructions are clearly stated in the Handbook:

13:00 Division 2 Warning. Numeral Penant 2 Displayed.

13:05 Division 2 Start. Numeral Penant 2 Lowered.

13:10 Division 1 Warning. Numeral Penant 1 Displayed.

13:15 Division 1 Start. Numeral Penant 1 Lowered.

Starting tactics are discussed aboard 'Book Mark'. 'J' favours a boat end start. I voice my concern regarding being the smallest boat in a mixed fleet division and that sometimes it's wiser to just go for the biggest hole in the line, with clear air. The pre race jockeying continues and 'William the Conqueror', on 'Opera', pleads with 'Terry Thomas', on 'Foam Dancer' to please stop interfering with Division 2 as the start sequence has begun. 'J' does a great job and we hit the line on the start, But 'Captain Spruce Pigeon', on 'Specific Wind', a Division 1 competitor, has defied all the sailing instructions and recognition of nautical penants in starting with Division 2, just abeam of our wee boat. I hail 'Captain Pigeon' and politely ask which division he is sailing in, but all I receive is a very confused and quizzical look. 'Specific Wind' continues to sail over the top of us and we are left in the Doldrums for a considerable amount of time.

My first thoughts were lets run up the 'Jolly Roger' and blow 'Specific Wind' out of the water, but my crew are very philosophical and contain my passions. We don't want to spoil any ones day. If it's one thing I learnt from my days sailing with 'El Presidenti English', on 'Fritz', was we're gentlemen sailors and conduct ourselves in that honourable manner.

After our debacle at the start we settle down to enjoy a wonderful day on beautiful 'Kidney' Harbour and on the long run home from 'Dark' Island our shocking 'Blue' spinnaker helps us recover a few precious places, in the fleet.

After the race and back at the Club I ask 'Captain Pigeon', "What was going on at the start? He was most unrepentant, in fact quite indignant. How could the Sailing Committee get it so wrong. Expecting competitors to be able to read and follow instructions. Anyway 'Justice' was done in the end and 'Specific Wind' was presented with a bottle of wine for 2nd place in Division 1, or was that 1st place in Division 2? The only saving grace was Commodore 'William Daughter's' creative use of the 'Scottish' language.

P.S. It's rumoured that the square rigged sailing vessel 'James Cagney' will intimidate the start line of the next 'Mandalay' Yacht Club event. That'll through a cat among the pigeons, or should I say a 'Pigeon among the 'Categories'! Alas, despite my acid pen, I must confess I do admire 'Captain Spruce Pigeon's' indomitable spirit.

Long may it continue.
Happy Sailing,
'See Sea'

Manly Yacht Club Mini-Regatta Wrap-up

Is this the way of the future? Up and down legs, short sharp and to the point? Lots of start practice and the opportunity to get that mark rounding thing right? Much needed experience in the use of that most horrible of sails - the dreaded spinnaker? What about the start sequence; was that the 4-minute or the 1-minute gun?

All these things were put to the test on the 2nd and last day of our Mini-Regatta series for this season. Three great races, all in a gentle Sow Easter, with a great course once again set by our race officials.

A really good turn out of boats February 19th, made for some close racing. A few skippers interpreted the rules slightly differently than the Blue Book would have liked. But with some polite advice from other competitors, most of our 'recalcitrant bargers' and 'no overlap/buoy room panickers', got the idea by race three. In the end, good racing was had by all.

Now down to the nitty-gritty

Who won and who didn't. Colin Cameron on BOKARRA was first place for the day and scored himself 4-litres of Jotun top of the line Seavictor 50 Anti-foul. This stuff is good gear and we need to thank Jotun for their sponsorship.

In second place was Brian Wilson on EOS, who scored a great sail repair gift voucher from Bret Scott Sails on Kenneth Road in Manly Vale. I would love to give you the run down of all the other prize winners, but to be honest everybody who turned up back at the club for the BBQ got something. Even one boat that didn't sail won a prize.

If you want to know who won the much-converted overall Mini-Regatta trophy, you need to turn up the Prize Giving at the end of the season.

Special thanks must go out to all of you sailors who supported this slightly unusual format. It's always a relief to see a big bunch of sails on the start line when you arrange one of these events. The great turnout really impressed our sponsors too, who are keen to do the whole thing again next season. Without them, the prize giving would be a little less interesting.

If you liked the Mini-Regatta style of racing or have any ideas (which I may choose to ignore), please give the club some feedback. Volunteers congrats on another successful event!

Many thanks and stay out of my way -

P Mac.

● RESCUE EFFORT

Jet ski man recognised

A man who rode a jet ski into large breaking waves to rescue three people whose yacht capsized was named as the inaugural NSW Maritime Medal recipient today.

Nelson Bay man Stuart Mackenzie watched as waves "the height of telegraph poles" picked up the yacht and dumped it at Port Stephens 12 months ago.

Despite danger to himself, Mackenzie rode into the waves and pulled the trio aboard his jet ski.

New Ports and Waterways minister Joe Tripodi said the medals would be awarded for safety, environment and community achievements.

"Stuart is the type of model citizen we want to see acknowledged under this new scheme," Tripodi said.

Well done, I think this article may refer to the Jet Skier who rescued Pacific Breeze crew, although not sure if the waves were as big as telegraph poles!

Saturday, 18th February we had a huge turn up of eager sailors waiting for eagerly for their sail. The day was one of those fabulous ones, not too hot, not too breezy, just perfect, with the result that we had a few prospective members who came to try us out. Numbers today reached almost a record, with at least 35 sailors and helpers enjoying the facilities of Manly Yacht Club, and Manly Cove.

The next few days were taken up with maintenance on our two safety boats. First Charlie's Chariot, then Eli D were slipped, cleaned and anti-fouled. Thanks to helpers from Sailability, Manly Yacht Club, and the Sailing and Rowing Club, the work went efficiently, and we were able to get both boats back in the water before our next Sailing Day, which was Wednesday, 1st March.

Again, this was a huge day, with 20 students from Fisher Rd and Truscott St Special schools taking advantage of a very special day on the water in a very special setting. Saturday 4th March we had a calmer, smaller day, with lots of smiles from our 14 disabled sailors, and 15 helpers. It was Sydney Harbour day today, so there were lots of obstacles in the Cove, such as kayakers, swimmers, surf skis and support boats, making it an exciting sail. We are looking forward to competing in the Cristal D'Arques Women's Challenge on 19th March, hoping to have 4 of our Access Dinghies on the water

We are two new members of the Manly Yacht Club. We are happy that we joined as everyone is very friendly. Last week we did some races. Unfortunately there were many bluebottles and many people got stung. We got one bluebottle in our boat and Angus got 3! Almost every week we go to a different beach and a few weeks ago we went to Store Beach. We played some games in the water where you have to throw a float into the water and then someone else gets it. When we got to the beach everyone played around. On the way there we raced there and used our spinnakers. Hugh and Graham almost got stuck in the rocks and had to push their boat away from them because of the wind. We'd like to thank everyone for helping us. Hopefully next week will be just as fun and there won't be as many bluebottles.

Australia Day Regatta Awards.

Manly Yacht Club was well represented at Sydney Town Hall on Wednesday, 8th March. Blue Robinson (centre boards) Alice Donaldson and Natalie Schultz (MJs) and Peter Macdonald (Yachts) collected their medallions at a ceremony held in the very impressive Main Vestibule room of the Town Hall. 2006 marked the 170th year of the Regatta. Other award winners included some big names and clubs were represented from all over Sydney, The Illawarra, Gosford and Lake Macquarie.

A special thank you from all the MYC members to Tina and Matt Ryan, Steve Teudt and his volunteers, Kristine, Elizabeth and Fiona, the Cook Chris, Yuko and the kitchen staff, and all the MYC team of helpers at the end of the each event for making this another great MYC Twilight Series

 UNDERTOW CAN ANYONE HELP?

We cant help but try to track down the owner of a lost camera filled with lots of photos of two very cute kids. Some of the photographs were taken at a club with white walls with timber honour boards above the picture rails. Zooming in, we can identify the names Higgins, Neville, Isaksen & 2002 - J Ryan.

A further series of names on a white board - CBL Cup 3, the words Proper course & H Hazard. Then listed the names Windy, Lautrec, Out There, Apres, Spam, Slangivar, Ratty, and J Curve.

We're thinking local sailing club? If it's on the northern beaches we're sure someone can tell us where.

Hope the owner can be found? Robert Steffens

CENTREBOARDS AT A CROSSROADS

The centreboard division has been running for nearly two years now and has nearly completed 5 racing series. Fleet numbers have ranged from 3 to 7 boats making the startline (the finish is another story!). Times are changing and the core group sailors have left for work commitments, family commitments and generally not enough hours in the weekend to do everything. I am also now having to step down from organising the division due to a imminent move to Singapore which will cause minor problems with making a two o'clock start. Where do we go from here? Is there anyone out there that would like to take the reins of the division and try to build the fleet for future racing? Do you know people that sail other classes of centreboards that may be looking for a home club or racing venue? Would the owners and sailors of centreboards rather race in annual regattas instead of a full series? Please think about the above questions and e-mail ideas or opinions to the myc@tpg.com.au so that the sailing committee may discuss the future of the centreboards at their next meeting in time to put changes into the next handbook. Now that the centreboards are part of the Manly Yacht club again (and even get wine for winning races !!!) it would be a shame to see the division die due to apathy.

JULES

CREW BANK?

Hopefully in the very near future through the skill and expertise of our Webmasters there should be available through the Club's website (www.myc.org.com / crew bank) a list of sailors wishing to be crew on the Twilights and Sunday racing.

Access to the list should be easy and will give boat owner members direct access, either by telephone numbers or E-mail, to interested parties looking to be crew.

A similar set up will be available to boat owners to list their details, such as boat name, size of boat, etc and availability so that crew looking for a sail can contact the owner directly and make arrangements.

This system could be in place before the end of this current sailing season so keep tuned.

Meanwhile the following list, in alphabetical order, gives quite a few names of sailors wishing to join a crew and go for a sail. Give them a go and maybe you could probably find they're all pretty good. (Beware complacency regular crew?)
